

PORTLAND CONCERT DHARMA TALK FOR PEACE

With “Piano Pop’s Alternative,” Brian Kimmel

Fri., MAY 15, 2009

Multnomah Friends Meetinghouse / 7:30 – 9:00 p.m.

4312 SE Stark $12 advance online / $15 at door

Free Admission when registering for next day Thriving for Thrivers Weekend Workshop!

“Brian’s lighthearted, fun-loving humor and his naked honesty shook us into a knowing of our own freedom and aliveness. He and his music are a delight!”

–Marilyn & Dale

Experience the power of original songs and sharings to inspire, educate and energize you towards personal and social transformation. Brian Kimmel is a lay ordained student of Zen Master Thich Nhat Hanh; his inspirational lyrics, humor and loving candor have delighted and stirred audiences of all ages and spiritual inclinations toward a reality of harmony and beauty in togetherness. He is author of numerous music CDs as well as an audio program called Healing Abuse with Mindfulness and Love based on his own experience of finding true love, peace and liberation through engaged Buddhist practice. He has been living and sharing ecumenical teachings for peace since 1999. Visit briankimmel.com to listen to his music and to see more about the Portland Thriving for Thrivers Weekend Workshop and other events scheduled in your area.